"I became an attorney to educate clients and provide guidance through legal challenges and the complexities of the legal system."

Ms. Betancourt's practice focuses on estates and trusts across Maryland and DC, where her experience has sharpened her ability to think critically, adapt to each client's needs, identify potential challenges, and develop practical solutions.

Lissa provides her clients with comprehensive legal counsel, advocacy, and tailored strategic solutions that align with their individual needs. By deeply understanding each client's unique situation and goals, she can simplify the legal process and offer clear guidance, empowering her clients to make informed decisions. Lissa's proactive approach, resourcefulness, and commitment to respect create an empowering environment for her clients.

Prior to joining the firm, Lissa gained valuable experience as an associate attorney at Oram & Moss, Chartered, and Elville & Associates, P.C. She also worked as an eDiscovery Analyst at Synergy Legal Staffing and interned at Texas Star Alliance Lobbying Firm.
