

SAMANTHA A. ARNOLD

Title: Associate
Phone: (301) 441-2420
Email: sarnold@mhlawyers.com
Office Location: Greenbelt & Annapolis

My goal for my clients is to ensure that their family is appropriately taken care of and protected, even in the midst of difficulties.

Samantha Arnold is a dynamic and confident attorney with a diverse legal background, specializing in estate planning, estate administration, civil litigation, and family law. Her empathetic approach to legal practice sets her apart as a compassionate advocate for her clients. Samantha has a passion for helping individuals, families, and businesses navigate complex legal matters. She is skilled in listening to her clients and crafting action plans and solutions. Whether representing individuals or businesses, she approaches each case with determination, always seeking the best possible resolution.

As a dedicated estate planning attorney, Samantha assists clients in creating comprehensive estate plans tailored to their unique needs and goals. Her attention to detail and personalized approach ensures that clients' wishes are meticulously documented and legally sound. She is equally adept at guiding families through the emotional and practical aspects of estate administration, providing a steady hand during challenging times.

Ms. Arnold also has experience in family law matters, where her empathetic nature truly shines. She understands that family disputes can be emotionally charged, and she strives to provide compassionate guidance and legal support.

Samantha is licensed to practice law in the state of Maryland and is a proud member of the Maryland State Bar Association. Her dynamic legal skills, confidence in the courtroom, and empathetic approach make her a valuable asset to clients seeking comprehensive legal representation.

Fun Fact: Samantha used to be a singer in a band.